ACADIA

Italian network of Documentation Centres
on Alcohol, Risk Behaviors,
Drugs Addiction and AIDS

Acadia is the name of the Italian network of Documentation Centres on Alcohol, Substance - Abusing Behavior, Risk Behaviors, Drugs Addiction and AIDS, since May 2003.

The members of Acadia are:

RETECEDRO (www.retecedro.net),
Centro Studi Gruppo Abele (centrostudi.gruppoabele.org),
dip&doc (www.regione.emilia-romagna.it/tossicodipendenze/dipdoc),
Agenzia SEDES (www.sedes.it),
Centro Documentazione ASUR zona 7 Ancona (www.asl7.marche.it)

The network's aims are:

- optimising resources and know-how of the Documentation Centres on pathological dependences
- promoting free access to the libraries, websites, virtual reference desks of the Centres
- supporting research and continuous training for professionals and students in the addiction field
- promoting good practices, improving the quality of services and the use of evaluation tools

ACADIA provides:

- access to books, reviews, grey literature and multimedial documentation
- bibliographic support for social research on AOD
- virtual reference desk and access to OPAC and on-line databases to get documentation available both in Italy and abroad, through ELISAD and SALS organizations.
